

I don't think it is fair for Verizon to try and do this. I percieve that this would certainly be a negative to the community and would cause problems for individuals and other businesses that rely on providing DSL over these lines for an income.

It also stifles competition & the health of a competitive free market in this arena. Please overturn this request as you would be doing a great deal of good for the community.